

Jackson Court San Francisco

Located in stately Pacific Heights, the Jackson Court is a magnificent brownstone mansion built in 1900. An arched entrance and flower-lined courtyard welcome you to the understated elegance and serenity of Jackson Court. Each of the ten guestrooms is individually decorated in a blend of antiques and contemporary furnishings.

Hotel Services & Amenities

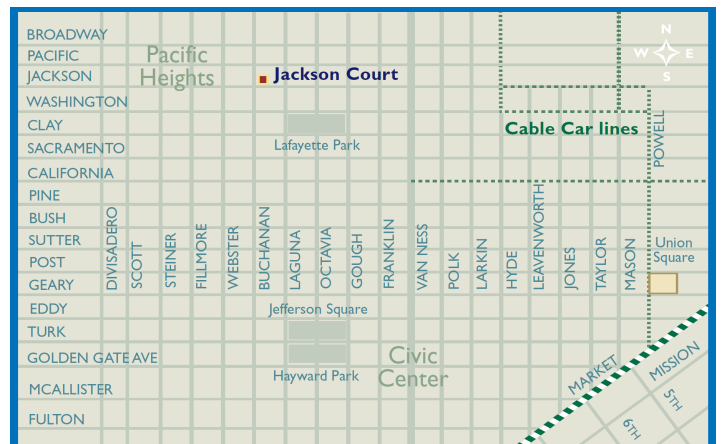

- Complimentary extended continental breakfast
- Afternoon tea and cookie service
- Game salon in handsome wood paneled parlor
- Complete concierge services
- Free Wi-Fi connections
- A complimentary newspaper can be found each morning in the game salon and breakfast room
- Dry cleaning services are available upon request

Guestrooms

The inn has 10 rooms including 2 suites, several with fireplaces. Each guestroom has a delightfully different decor combining antique and contemporary furnishings. The spacious rooms each feature private bath with hairdryer, phone, a sitting area, and a television. The Jackson Court is a non-smoking property.

Location

The Jackson Court is centrally located in the prestigious Pacific Heights neighborhood and provides a restful haven from which to explore San Francisco. Fashionable Union and Fillmore Streets are nearby and boast a wide array of trendy boutiques and restaurants. The mansion is about ten minutes by car from downtown and Union Square, the Hyde Street Cable Car line, Fisherman's Wharf and Ghirardelli Square.